

Editor-in-Chief Message

It is my great pleasure and privilege to present to you the second issue of the Journal of Advanced Sport Technology (JAST). This new and peer-reviewed journal promises to make a significant impact upon the field of sport technology. It is an international, open-access journal with a focus on cutting-edge findings in this fast growing field of technology.

JAST strives to quarterly publish the most recent articles in sport technology. Our goal is to provide the reader of JAST with a new, well-constructed, informative, and technological journal. I strongly encourage researchers, industrial sector and universities to submit novel, innovative and scientific manuscripts to support the growing field of sport technology. If you wish to submit a manuscript or to view the journal home page, please go to <http://jast.uma.ac.ir>.

I am grateful to the JAST motivated and qualified reviewers. I am eagerly looking forward to making JAST a distinguished and international journal in the field of sport technology.
